COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world. May your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped and obeyed to the ends of the earth; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 3:1-10, 11-20

A reading from the Book of Samuel

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. Then the LORD called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!” and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Then the LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever." Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." He said, "Here I am." Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you." So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."

As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.

R: The Word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to Christ.

PSALM: 139:1-5, 12-17

L: Lord, you have searched me out and known me; you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

P: You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways.

L: Indeed there is not a word on my lips, but you, O Lord, know it altogether.

P: You press upon me behind and before and lay your hand upon me.

L: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

P: For you yourself created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

L: I will thank you because I am marvellously made; your works are wonderful and I know it well.

P: My body was not hidden from you while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.

L: Your eyes beheld my limbs yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; they were fashioned day by day, when as yet there was none of them.

P: How deep I find your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them!

L: If I were to count them they would be more in number than the sand; to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

All: God of mystery and power, even our minds and hearts are the veils and signs of your presence. We come in silent wonder to learn the way of simplicity, the eternal road that leads to love for you and for your whole creation. We come as your Son Jesus Christ taught us, and in his name. Amen.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

A reading from the Book of Corinthians

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

R: The Word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to Christ.

GRADUAL HYMN: 373 “This is the Day the Lord Hath Made”

(vs 1,2,3 before reading, 4 after)

HOLY GOSPEL: John 1:43-51

R: The Lord be with you.

P: And also with you.

R: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke.

P: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

R: The Gospel of Christ.

P: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Otherwise, readiness will not prevail! Also, please let Rose-Ellen know as events must be noted on the office calendar.

Request from the Wardens, Richard Adams and Randy Pepper.

Members of the Congregation

Our annual Vestry meeting is coming up in early February. Looks like February 1, 2015. As you will all be aware, this is when we discuss our annual business, celebrate our past experiences and decide who will carry on in the various committees, etc. to make decisions and planning our business/social events for the next year.

We have many representatives who have been on the Parish council for long periods of time, some of whom are in need of a much deserved rest from being the leads.

The different positions that may be available include: Stewardship (PWRFD), Outreach, Events, Communications, Property, Treasurer, Vestry Clerk/Council secretary, 2 Synod delegates and 2 auditors.

Some who have held these positions in the past have indicated a willingness to stay on and others have indicated a willingness to move on. We would ask each of you to consider if and where you may fit in to the needs of the Parish and in particular, consider throwing your name in the ring so to speak for a position. Please contact Richard Adams or Randy Pepper should you be interested or have any questions about a particular position. Nominations will be accepted the day of the Vestry meeting and we would look forward to having elections.

Thanks for your consideration.
